

Discover the World of Modeling

Gretchen Garcia introduces Discover the World of Modeling which offers new and exciting accelerated modeling and self improvement classes designed for youth and young adults. Gretchen Garcia is a fashion and modeling consultant offering many years of professional experience in the areas of: fashion, wardrobe styling, organizing, managing of corporate fashion shows, marketing, and advertising for corporate clients. She has produced many corporate, non profit fashion shows and has cast models, make-up artists, hair stylists from across the country. She has worked with Alberto Culver, L'Oreal, Luster Products, JCPenney, Nabisco, Sears and McDonald's to name a few. Gretchen has produced and art directed major ads that have appeared in Essence, Ebony and many more. She brings a wealth of knowledge, insight and corporate connections from celebrities of the modeling industry as well as local models.

Our Vision: Discover the World of Modeling is committed to lay an effective modeling foundation by building self esteem, self respect, responsibility and integrity while educating and introducing modeling as a creative art.

All participating students that complete both courses will receive a Discover the World of Modeling certificate of completion and an opportunity to model in an upcoming Fashion Show.
